7. What is your primary reason for attending this school?

8. Are you receiving prayer ministry or counseling at this time? Yes No If so, briefly explain.

Because we are dealing with the hearts of people, the school can, at times, be very intense. Personal responses to teaching and small group interaction may include, but is certainly not limited to, some of the following: expression of anger, prejudices and resentments; apprehension, anxiety, insomnia, depression, dissociation, etc. Note: If a crime is confessed in small group during the course of the school, the facilitator/leader of your small group will need to report it to the director/ facilitator of the school. The director/facilitator of the school in accordance with the laws of your state may need to report it to the proper authorities. Because of time restraints, all of your personal life issues will not be dealt with during the course of the school. This is a life long process. However, we do give you the tools to pursue further healing, and you may want to pursue further ministry once the school is complete. If you feel there are already significant life issues that need to be addressed, ministry or counseling prior to your enrollment in the school is advisable and always beneficial. If you have been seeing a counselor, we ask that you discuss the school with your counselor and receive their approval. (Their signature required below)

Having accepted the school enrollment information and requirements outlined in this application and the Elijah House Live School Booklet, I respectfully submit my application. I agree to respectfully abide by the determination of Elijah House as to the suitability of my attendance at this time. I agree to indemnify and hold Elijah House and any host facility harmless for any of my personal responses to the teachings and small group time during the school. I also agree to indemnify and hold Elijah House and any host facility harmless for any costs in time, travel, accommodations, or other incidentals, should the school be canceled, my acceptance be delayed, or I am asked to discontinue the course to seek ministry before continuing at another time.

I understand that my signature testifies that all information provided is true, that I accept the terms of enrollment, and will provide sufficient funds in a timely manner for my participation in the school.

Deciding if a student graduates

We recommend sharing all criteria for the completion of the course with your students during your first class meeting. A certificate of completion signifies:

- * Satisfactory completion of all course work and participation.
- * Eligibility to be a student of the Elijah House Basic II School
- * Eligibility to apply to facilitate the Elijah House Basic I video school

However, please be sure to advise all of your students that completion of course does not:

- * Authorize or sanction its recipient to minister under the name of Elijah House
- * Take the place of state requirements to be a licensed counselor
- * Suggest the accomplishment of an accredited course or degree

Please be certain your students understand the above information. Then there will be no question of misinterpretation at the end of the school.

Please Note:

For those pursuing degree programs, you may want to submit your school curriculum to your College or University for consideration of credits. Elijah House will provide a letter stating approximate hours for the class upon request. College credit may also be available through Vision International University located in Ramona, CA.
